

Application form for the 4th International CWD Conference Student Travel Grant 2023

The student travel grant applies to the 4th International CWD Conference taking place in Denver Colorado, USA from May 31 - June 2, 2023. Two (2) students will be selected for this grant. The definition of a student for the purposes of this award is: someone who is currently enrolled in a degree-granting program at a postsecondary institution.

Students awarded this travel grant will have up to 7 days to acknowledge receipt of the award (by responding to the email notification), and up to 14 days from initial notification to provide proof of conference registration. If these deadlines are not met, the student will forfeit the award and it will be offered to the runner-up.

Name:

Email address:

Phone number:

Which country (countries) do you have permanent citizenship for?

Did you submit an abstract to the 4th International CWD Conference? Yes No

Please list your educational background and current program in which you are enrolled (including the location (country) of your university):

Year Period	Degree	University	Location/Country	Completed Y/N

Please write a statement (maximum 250 words) on the following:

“Why you would like to attend the 4th International CWD Conference”