

CONTINUING EDUCATION CERTIFICATE
4th International Chronic Wasting Disease Symposium
May 31-June 2, 2023

This is to certify that _____ has attended the 4th International Chronic Wasting Disease Symposium and is eligible to receive the following continuing education credits:

LECTURE

Wednesday, May 31st, 2023

Plenary speaker – Overcoming barriers to control CWD	0.25 credit hours	_____
Guest speaker – How is Europe dealing with CWD?	0.75 credit hours	_____
Environment	0.75 credit hours	_____
Management	1.0 credit hours	_____
Surveillance	1.75 credit hours	_____

Thursday June 1st, 2023

Plenary speaker – Characterizing the properties and host-range potentials of established and newly-emergent strains of chronic wasting disease prions	0.25 credit hours	_____
Human Dimension	1.5 credit hours	_____
Intervention	0.75 credit hours	_____
Transmission	1.75 credit hours	_____

Friday June 2nd, 2023

Plenary speaker – CWD research, past, present, future	0.25 credit hours	_____
Pathogenesis	1.25 credit hours	_____

Maximum lecture credit hours attainable: 10.25

Total lecture hours attended: _____

Continuing Education hours are sponsored by the American College of Zoological Medicine, a statutorily approved CE provider.

Disclaimer: The ACZM is a registered veterinary specialty college of the American Veterinary Medical Association for sponsoring of continuing education credits. Individual States or Provinces may have different laws or policies on acceptability of conferences, meetings or courses to qualify for continuing education (CE) credit. You are advised to check with the State(s) or Provinces in which you are licensed to ensure that the CE credits provided are acceptable.

Anne Justice-Allen, DVM, MS

Anne Justice-Allen, DVM, MS, DACZM
 President, American Association of Wildlife Veterinarians

Jennifer D'Agostino

Jennifer D'Agostino, DVM, Dipl. ACZM
 Secretary, American College of Zoological Medicine